Embassy of Jamaica, Tokyo, 23rd July 2019

Scholarships available for Jamaican Students already in Japan

The Embassy of Jamaica presents its greetings to the Jamaican Community in Japan and wishes to use this opportunity to disseminate information on Scholarship opportunities that are being offered by the International Human Resource Network Organisation Foundation (IHNO) for up to 20 students with economic challenges, currently studying in Japan.

These scholarships are applicable to students at Language, Vocational and Graduate Schools, as well as Universities, amounting to a maximum of ¥30,000 monthly for up to two years and renewable for up to four years. The eligibility requirements include:

- Letter from your place of employment for part-time students;
- Letter of recommendation from your School; and
- Letter of recommendation/introduction from the Embassy.

Interested applicants are invited to submit the foregoing to the Embassy with a copy of their passport bio-page. As there are no deadlines, you are invited to apply at your convenience.

The Embassy welcomes any query in relation to the aforementioned.
